This newly-renovated bungalow is perfect for those who prefer a residence with stylish design and accented with luxurious features. Distinctive elements include thick Berber-look carpeting and polished hardwood-like laminate floors, a cozy, wood-burning fireplace with stone mantel, a kitchen that complements the gourmet and/or serves the novice cook with sleek new GE appliances, an abundance of granite countertops and cupboards, and the elegant touch of arctic white crown molding throughout the home.

Dual master suites provide 10' of closet space, private baths and practical living space.
